

Leah R. Davis

Leah R. Davis is a visionary and experienced Marketing and Communications Consultant, Event Producer, and Real Estate Agent based in The Bahamas, whose work reflects creativity, culture, and class. With more than two decades of experience across The Bahamas and the Caribbean, Leah has shaped the brand stories of leading organizations spanning hospitality, financial services, real estate and philanthropy—always with a passion for excellence, meaningful impact, and measurable results.

As the founder and principal of Concepts Marketing Solutions, a boutique agency specializing in brand strategy, PR, and experiential events, Leah leads a dynamic team of creative professionals. Together, they design standout campaigns, brand activations, and signature experiences that elevate brands, connect communities, and inspire lasting engagement.

A skilled media personality and sought-after event host, Leah brings grace, authenticity, and storytelling mastery to every engagement - whether on stage, on air, or behind the scenes. Her passion for connection and creative expression also fuels her work as an Event Producer, most notably as the Founder of One Blood, The Bahamas' iconic old-school reggae experience that celebrates culture, community, and nostalgia with sophistication and soul.

Driven by purpose and partnership, Leah actively collaborates with charitable and non-profit organizations, using her platform to amplify meaningful causes and inspire positive change.

As a licensed Real Estate Agent with Corcoran CA Christie, she brings her signature blend of creativity, professionalism and strategic insight to every client relationship.

Motivated by excellence and guided by purpose, Leah continues to create moments and movements that she hopes will uplift, inspire and make a positive difference, both for her clients and community.
